City Of Las Vegas Sewer Bill Late Fees/Liens Suspended During Current Emergency

Late Fees And Liens Will Be Waived Until 30 Days After Emergency Declaration Ends

The city of Las Vegas will waive sewer bill late fees and property liens normally filed on delinquent sewer bills until 30 days after the current city emergency declaration ends. Those who are employed or not suffering financial hardship are encouraged to keep current on their sewer bills.

“During these tough times, we realize that those who have lost their jobs or have reduced hours will have difficulty paying their bills and meeting all their obligations,” said Las Vegas Mayor Carolyn G. Goodman. “The city of Las Vegas is extending what assistance we can to those who need some extra help right now.”

City of Las Vegas sewer bills may be paid online at <https://www.lasvegasnevada.gov/sewer>. Those with questions regarding sewer bills may email sewerservices@lasvegasnevada.gov or call 702-229-1289.
