

The following companies are listed on Hilton's Workforce Resource Center website:

- Amazon is looking for 100,000 employees.
- Albertson's is looking for 30,000 employees
- CVS is looking 50,000 employees.
- 7-Eleven is looking for 20,000 employees.
- Walgreens is looking for 10,000 employees.
- Publix, Lidl, and Sunrise Senior Living are each looking for 2,000 employees.
- Giant Eagle is looking to fill both full-time and part-time positions

Other options for temporary employment include pizza chains and certain essential retail/grocery stores, including:

- Domino's
- Kroger
- Save a Lot
- Walmart
- Dollar General
- Pizza Hut
- DoorDash, Uber Eats, Grubhub
- Instacart
- FedEx
- UPS
- Costco

While unemployment benefits have been modified in nearly every state to address COVID-19 layoffs, the systems are clogged, the phones are jammed, and payments will possibly take weeks.

Try these suggestions as another alternative to find the necessary wages to pay bills while we wait for the Coronavirus pandemic to pass.