

Engaging Community Partners to Strengthen Family Services

Now Available on the ECLKC!

Engaged community partnerships are supportive relationships between Head Start and Early Head Start programs, local schools, and community organizations. Communication between community partners, whether by individuals or groups, is regular and responsive. The goals of each partner are best met through their work with each other. Together, they share leadership and assess effectiveness to inform continuous learning and improve the quality of their partnership.

Use this collection of resources to guide your program's efforts as you work alongside your partners to strengthen child and family outcomes.

- Building Community Partnerships: Explore an overview of opportunities for family and community partnerships in Head Start and Early Head Start programs.
- Strategies and Examples for Community Partnerships: Strengthen community partnerships by identifying strategies and actions that address three priorities for community engagement.
- Planning Tools for Community Partnerships: Use these tools to develop clear action plans that enhance community partnerships.
